Abby Denson's Dolltopia Comic! When dolls are tired of being controlled by humans they escape to Dolltopia to live independently! A campy, punky comic with social commentary. Dolltopia: Abby Denson: 9781931160704: Amazon.com: Books Dolltopia is a fun but sharp-eyed critique of conformity in the guise of a delightful graphic novel from Abby Denson. In Denson's world, dolls are sick of playing dress up in the same old way and long to escape to what's essential a punk rock idyll, Dolltopia, where they can trade in their old clothes for ones that represent their personal style, and even get things like new faces and articulated limbs. Dolltopia by Abby Denson Cartoonist Abby Denson's newest book, Cool Japan Guide, will be out in March of 2015. She is the creator of the graphic novels Dolltopia (which won a Moonbeam Children's Book Award and an International Manga Award) and Tough Love: High School Confidential, which was originally serialized in XY Magazine.

Cartoonist Abby Denson I love Abby Denson's Dolltopia for many reasons. Dolltopia reminds me of John Water's Desperate Living, except with dolls! Like Denson, I believe that Barbies should be liberated from their cookie cutter lives and given the opportunity to pick whatever outfits they want! I also love her drawing style and wonderfully campy sense of humor.
